7 III. SECURITIZATION BACKGROUND

8 19 The participants in the securitization scheme described herein have devised
9 business plans to reap millions of dollars in profits at the expense of Plaintiff and other investors
10 in certain trust funds.

11 20 The mortgage market changed in recent years from one in which lenders
12 originated mortgages for retention in their own portfolios to one in which lenders attempted to 13 generate as many mortgage loans as possible for resale on the secondary mortgage market. The 14 goal of lenders, such as Defendants, were to generate high loan volumes, originate loans above
15 market interest rates for the premium prices paid at the secondary market, and becoming the 16 servicers of those loans generated.

17 21 Securitization is the financial technology that integrates the market for residential 18 mortgages with the capital markets. In securitization, investment banks take pools of home loans, 19 carve up the cash flows from those receivables, and convert the cash flows into bonds that are 20 secured by the mortgages. The bonds are variously known as residential mortgage-backed 21 securities (RMBS) or asset-backed securities (ABS).

22 22 Securitization goes by the moniker "structured finance," in part because a 23 securitizer structures the transaction to isolate the loan pool from the original lender. This is 24 accomplished by selling the loan pool to a special purpose vehicle or "SPV" that is owned by,
25 but legally distinct from, the lender. The SPV then resells the loan pool to a second SPV, which 26 is also independent of the lender and takes title to the bundle. The second SPV is typically in the 27 form of a trust. This two-tiered structure protects investors by preventing lenders' creditors from 28

1 reaching the assets backing the securities in case the lender goes bankrupt. Bankruptcy
2 remoteness also boosts ratings of securitized offerings.

3 23 Rating agencies evaluate and rate securitized loan pools. To the extent that SPVs
4 protect investors from the risk of the lender's bankruptcy, it is often possible for the loan bundle
5 to earn a higher rating than the lender itself would receive. In this way, "non-investment grade
6 and unrated originators (the majority of the market) [can] create investment-grade transactions."
7 After the loans are transferred to the second SPV, the investment bank for the issuer, carves the 8 principal and interest payments into tranches of bonds. Then, rating agencies gauge the credit
9 risk of each tranche by comparing the loan pool's characteristics with historical data and 10 forecasting the tranche's performance. In calculating credit risk, however, rating agencies do not 11 assess the suitability of the underlying loans for individual borrowers. The tranche system is 12 termed a "senior-subordinate structure" and is the "predominant structure of choice in subprime
13 RMBS." The tranches are arrayed from the most senior to the most junior, with "as many as five 14 mezzanine or subordinated tranches going down the ratings ladder" from AAA to B. The senior 15 class is the AAA tranche, the mezzanine class consists of the AA and A tranches, and the BBB,
16 BB, B, and unrated classes take the junior position. Any rating of BBB-/Baa3 or above is 17 deemed investment-grade and serves to assuage investors' concerns about the credit quality of 18 the mortgages backing the securities.
19

21 24 In a feature known as a "waterfall," the senior tranche is paid off before any other
22 tranche. Once the senior tranche is paid off, the next tranche moves to the head of the line for 23 principal payments until all of the tranches are retired. As a result, the junior tranche is the first 24 to absorb any losses and shields the senior tranches from losses due to loan defaults. Only in the 25 extremely unlikely event that losses exceeded the amounts due the holders of the junior tranches
26 would the senior tranches absorb credit losses.
27
28

1 25 Before rating agencies issue investment-grade ratings, they insist on added
2 financial cushions known as "credit enhancements." According to rating agencies, when 3 determining the needed level of credit enhancements, they assume catastrophic losses on an 4 order of magnitude of the Great Depression, with the amount of enhancements depending on the 5 rating desired, the type of collateral, and the reliability of the historical pool data.

7 26 Credit enhancements come in two types, internal and external enhancements.
8 Normally, the lender will provide sufficient internal enhancements to boost the offering to an
9 investment-grade rating. If the internal enhancements do not raise the senior tranche to a top 10 AAA rating, monoline insurers or other outside providers may add external enhancements to 11 raise the senior tranche to an AAA.

12 27 Once investment-grade ratings are in hand, the investment bank will price the 13 mortgage-backed securities and sell them to investors, either through a public offering or a 14 private placement. If the offering succeeds as planned, the lender receives two forms of revenue.
15 The first is cash from the sale of the securities. The second is "excess spread," which is the right
16 to any interest on the loans that exceeds the interest paid to the investors after deducting
17 expenses on the asset-backed bonds. In most situations, the present value of the cash proceeds
18 plus the excess spread exceeds the cash that the lender would have received from selling whole 19 loans.
20

21 IV. DEFENDANTS' MODUS OPERANDI

22 28 Defendants used the information described on paragraphs 19-27 regarding 23 secondary market trends, to develop loan products that could be offered for sale at the secondary 24 market.

25 29 Defendants view Plaintiff as a mean for producing more loans in order to produce
26 mortgage backed securities or mortgage pools to be sold to investors.
27
28

1 30 Defendants originated loans with little or no regard to borrowers' long-term
2 ability to afford them and to sustain homeownership, in violation of HOEPA. This scheme was 3 maintained with the knowledge and approval of Defendants.

4 31 Defendants implemented the deceptive scheme through misleading marketing
5 practices designed to sell risky and costly loans to homeowners, the terms and dangers of which 6 they did not understand, including by:

7 a. encouraging borrowers to obtain purchase money financing or refinance
8 with complicated mortgages such as hybrid adjustable rate mortgages (e.g., 2/28 9 and 3/27) or payment option adjustable rate mortgages that were difficult for 10 consumers to understand;

11 b. Marketing the mentioned complex loan products to consumers by 12 emphasizing the very low initial "teaser" or "fixed" rates while obfuscating or 13 misrepresenting the later steep monthly payments and interest rate increases or 14 risk of negative amortization.

15 32 Defendants employed various lending practices to further their deceptive scheme
16 including:

17 a. use of low or no documentation loans which allowed for no verification of 18 stated income or stated assets or both, or no request for income or asset
19 information at all;

20 b. urging borrowers to encumber their homes up to 100% (or more) of the 21 assessed value;

22 c. Placing borrowers in second mortgages or HELOCs while underestimating
23 and obscuring their total monthly payment obligations.

24 33 Defendants further their deceptive scheme by creating an environment which 25 propelled loan officers to sell the riskiest loans products mentioned above. The compensation
26 system implemented by Defendants encouraged brokers to place homeowners in loans with 27 interest rates higher than those for which they qualified as well as prepayment obligations and 28 balloon payments. This system of compensation aided and encouraged brokers in breaching their

1 fiduciary duties to borrowers by inducing borrowers to accept unfavorable loan terms without
2 full disclosure of the borrower's options and also compensated brokers beyond the reasonable
3 value of the brokerage services they rendered.

4 34 Defendants cared only about selling increasing numbers of loans at any cost, in 5 order to maximize Defendants' profits on the secondary market. Defendants' deceptive scheme
6 had one primary goal – supply the secondary market with as many loans as possible, specifically
7 loans that would yield the highest premiums such as the case of Plaintiff's loan transaction.

8 35 The majority of loans originated by Defendants were sold on the secondary 9 market, either as mortgage-backed securities or as pools of whole loans.

10 36 The typical securitization transaction involving mortgage backed securities is 11 fully described in paragraphs 19-27. EXHIBIT O is a diagram that illustrates the incredible
12 complexity of the loan pooling process and Defendants' interactions among themselves
13 pertaining to plaintiff's loan.

14 37 Defendants often sold the whole loans at a premium, meaning that the purchaser
15 paid Defendants a price in excess of 100% of the total principal amount of the loans included in 16 the loan pool.

17 38 The price paid by purchasers of securities or pools of whole loans varied based on 18 demand for the particular types of loans included in the securitization or sale of whole loans. The 19 characteristics of the loans such as whether the loans are prime or subprime, whether the loans
20 have an adjustable or fixed interest rate, or whether the loans include a prepayment penalty, all 21 influenced the price.

22 39 Various types of loans and loan terms earned greater prices, or "premiums," in the 23 secondary market. For example, investors in mortgages and mortgage backed securities have 24 been willing to pay higher premiums for loans with prepayment penalties and balloon payment
25 as the Plaintiff's loan transaction. Because the prepayment penalty deters borrowers from 26 refinancing early in the life of the loan, it essentially ensures that the income stream from the 27 loan will continue while the payment penalty is in effect. Defendants typically sought to market
28 loans that earned it higher premiums, including loans with prepayment penalties.

1 40 Defendants develop ways to generate an ever larger volume of the types of loans
2 most demanded by investors. For example, Defendants developed and modified loan products by 3 discussing with investors the prices they would be willing to pay for loans with particular
4 characteristics and subsequently entered into mortgage purchasing agreements with investors.
5 This enable Defendants to determine which loans were most likely to be sold on the secondary 6 market for the highest premiums.

7 41 Further, rather than waiting to sell loans until after they were made, Defendants
8 would sell loans "forward" before loans were funded.

9 42 Loans that were sold forward were sold subject to a set of stipulations between 10 Defendants and the purchaser contained on the mortgage purchasing agreement (usually 11 registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission). For example, in a sale of whole
12 loans, defendants might agree on April 1 that on June 30 it would deliver 3,500 adjustable rate
13 mortgage loans with an average interest rate of 6%, half of which would be subject to a 14 prepayment penalty, among other characteristics. (None of these loans would have been 15 generated as of April 1). Based on the stipulations regarding the characteristics of the loans to be
16 included in the pool, an investor might agree to pay a price totaling 102.5% of the total face value
17 of the loans. In other words, the purchaser agreed in advance to pay a premium of 2.5%.

18 43 Defendants originated as many loans as possible not only to maximize its profits
19 on the secondary market, but to earn greater profits from servicing the mortgages it sold.

20 44 Defendants engaged in deceptive practices such as offering a low teaser rate for 21 introductory periods. When teaser rate expired, loans immediately become an adjustable rate, in 22 addition to pre-payment penalties.

23 45 Defendants deceptively marketed such loans because those loans could be sold for 24 a higher premium on the secondary market.

25 46 Borrowers, enticed by the low teaser rate, were easily distracted from the fine
26 print in the loan documents and did not fully understand the terms or the financial implications of 27 Defendants' ARMs loan products. Defendants would turn borrowers' attention to the initial low
28

1 “teaser” payment and misrepresenting the true risks of their loan products. Defendants’ sales
2 approach was to “sell the payment”, the initial payment that is.

3 47 Defendants would only show on initial documentation the initial teaser monthly
4 payments. Documents provided lead borrower assumed she would make only the minimum
5 payment. Thus, Borrower would not know the monthly payment that would cover accruing
6 interest and escrow until she received the first statement after the expiration of the teaser rate,
7 well after all documents were signed.

8 Defendants misrepresented true terms of the ARMs by:

- 9 a. misrepresenting the amount of time that the interest rate would be fixed 10 for the loan;
- 11 b. misrepresenting the risk of the ARMs
- 12 c. misrepresenting the fact that the payment rate was not the interest rate;
- 13 d. misrepresenting that the minimum payment would last the entire term of 14 the loan.
- 15 e. misrepresenting how difficult would be for borrowers to refinance a ARM
16 loan with a balloon payment, since after making only minimum payments, 17 negative amortization would eventually take over and the borrower would 18 be upside-down; thus, making refinancing impossible.
- 19 d. misrepresented the fact that ARM included a prepayment penalty in 20 addition to a balloon payment.
- 21 e. misrepresented the effect that making only the minimum payment would 22 have on the prepayment penalty. Negative amortization could cause
23 principal to increase. It also increases the amount of interest, which in turn 24 increases the prepayment penalty.
- 25 f. misrepresented that Defendants would be able to waive prepayment
26 penalty if borrower refinanced with them. However, Defendants would not 27 be able to waive the penalty. The majority of Defendants loans were sold 28

1 in the secondary market, thus, limiting their authority to waive such 2 penalty.

3 48 In an effort to increase their loan origination in order to sell them to the secondary
4 market, Defendants relaxed established, generally accepted, underwriting criteria. This would 5 increase the likelihood that borrower would lose their homes.

6 49 Traditionally, lenders required borrowers seeking mortgage loans to document
7 their income, for example by providing W-2s or tax returns, as well as assets. Defendants
8 disregarded such requirements by introducing SISA loans or NINJAs, acronyms for "stated
9 income stated assets" and "no income no job assets" respectively. These loan programs allowed
10 Defendants to make more loans and more quickly in order to sell them in the secondary market.

11 50 Defendants' compensation in the form of yield spread premium, rebates or 12 kickbacks induced many mortgage brokers that would earn Defendants the most profits on the 13 secondary market, regardless that such loans would be detrimental to the borrower.

14 51 A borrower retains the services of a mortgage broker to negotiate and acceptable
15 loan plan. Thus, a mortgage broker would owe fiduciary duty to the borrower. This means that 16 broker would make full and accurate disclosure of loan terms to borrowers, particularly those 17 that might affect the borrower's decision, and to act always in the best interest of the borrower.

18 52 Defendants' compensation to brokers as described on the above paragraph is in 19 violation of RESPA. Such compensation induced brokers to breach their fiduciary duties to 20 borrowers by placing them into loans with a higher interest rate than the rate for which borrowers
21 qualified, in order to increase Defendants profits on the selling of such loans in the secondary
22 market. In addition, Defendants would pay a rebate to a broker for placing borrowers in loans
23 that included prepayment penalty and/or balloon payments. The loans were doom to foreclosure.

24 53 Defendants took advantage of borrowers' innate desire to have a home of their 25 own. Therefore, Defendants induce borrowers into believing that it was looking out for their best 26 interest when offered the mentioned loan products.

COUNT ONE: VIOLATION OF THE ARIZONA ASSIGNMENT AND SATISFACTION OF MORTGAGE LAW.

56 Plaintiff reaffirms, re-allege and incorporate by reference the foregoing paragraphs.

57 Exhibits show no recorded chain of title/interest either as original mortgage holder, assignee, trustee, or successor-in-interest for Defendants.

58 County records show inconsistencies, on recorded instruments by Defendants, which create conflict.

59 County records show inconsistencies, on recorded instruments by Defendants, which create conflict, for example EXHIBIT G through H-1, the Notes and Deed of Trusts shows PACIFIC GOLD MORTGAGE GROUP, LLC., as the "Lender" and Beneficiary under

1 the Security Instrument. However, EXHIBITS I, K and L shows that that the Statement of
2 Breach or Non-performance, Notice of Substitution of Trustee and Notice of trustee's Sale
3 alleges WASHINGTON MUTUAL BANK as Beneficiary.

4 60 Defendant WASHINGTON MUTUAL BANK produces a Lost Assignment
5 Affidavit (EXHIBIT J) stating that the assignment from Long Beach Mortgage Company to 6 Washington Mutual Bank is lost and not available for production or recordation. The Affidavit
7 do not bear any authentication in the form of corporate seal or stamp indicating anyone that
8 Washington Mutual Bank authorized this signature. In addition, Affiant does not claim personal 9 knowledge of the lost instrument and does not present the entire chain of custody of the Note.

10 61 There is no proof of an assignment, therefore, Defendants have not satisfied its 11 burden of demonstrating standing at the time of recording the Substitution of trustee and the 12 trustee's Sale.

13 62 Arizona's recording statute requires that all conveyances of real estate be 14 acknowledged and recorded per A.R.S. § 33-412.

15 63 A land conveyance not notarized and recorded is otherwise void.

16 64 Because Defendants have not proven that the land was acknowledged and 17 recorded BEFORE foreclosure proceeding began, they cannot go forward with the Trustee's Sale
18 unless and until that proof is made.

19 65 There is no proof of any assignment, trust or successor interest recorded on the 20 County records prior to foreclosure proceedings.

21 66 The Deed of Trust is being held after the alleged "sale" to the assignee to the 22 trust.

23 67 Defendants cannot take an equitable assignment of a Deed of Trust because it is 24 not the legal owner of the Deed of Trust.

25 68 A.R.S. § 33-420(A), states that [a] person purporting to claim an interest in, or a 26 lien or encumbrance against, real property, who causes a document asserting such claim to be 27 recorded in the office of the county recorder, knowing or having reason to know that the 28 document is forged, groundless, contains a material misstatement or false claim or is otherwise

1 invalid is liable to the owner or beneficial title holder of the real property for the sum of not less
 2 than five thousand dollars, or for treble the actual damages caused by the recording, whichever is
 3 greater, and reasonable, and reasonable attorney fees and costs of the action.

4 69 Arizona Law states that no estate shall be conveyed unless the conveyance is by 5 an instrument in writing, subscribed and delivered by the party disposing of the estate.

6 70 Every deed or conveyance of real property must be signed by the grantor and 7 must be duly acknowledged before some officer authorized to take acknowledgements.

8 71 A party causing an invalid document to be recorded must know or have reason to 9 know under A.R.S. § 33-420 that the document is invalid.

10 72 Defendants claim of Plaintiff's property contains material misstatements on the 11 face of the documents, thus making their recorded documents invalid.

12 73 As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' action, Plaintiff has suffered
 13 mental anguish, physical illness as direct result of stress caused by Defendants. In addition,
 14 Plaintiff has suffered substantial economic harm including but not limited to the loss of equity in
 15 the home, and the imminent prospect of being foreclosed and evicted from his home.

16 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays this Court that judgment be entered against Defendants
 17 as follows:

- 18 a. Judgment ordering that the Trustee Sale be cancelled immediately;
- 19 b. Plaintiffs be awarded monetary damages available under the law.
- 20 c. Punitive damages available under the law.
- 21 d. This Court declares that Defendants have no legal claim to title of the
- 22 subject property.
- 23 e. Attorneys fees be awarded to Plaintiffs.
- 24 f. For such other and further equitable relief, declaratory relief and legal
- 25 damages as may be permitted by law and as the court may consider just
- 26 and proper.

27 COUNT TWO: VIOLATION TO THE TRUTH IN LENDING ACT, 15 U.S.C. § 1601 et

28 seq.

1 74 Plaintiff reaffirms, re-allege and incorporate by reference the foregoing
2 paragraphs.

3 75 Plaintiff did not receive the closing documents prior to closing and at the closing
4 Plaintiff was rushed through signing the documents. Plaintiff did not have any reason to suspect
5 that the documents which he would sign at closing would differ in any way from the previous
6 estimates he had been provided by loan Originator; however, the mortgage loan that Defendant
7 ended up with has much higher payment and is an adjustable rate mortgage, that would 8 amortized negatively over time.

9 76 The end result of the false and misleading representations and material omissions
10 of Defendants as to the true nature of the mortgage loan actually being processed, which said
11 Defendants had actual knowledge was in direct conflict with the original Plaintiff's stated
12 intentions and directions to said Defendants at the time of original application for the loan,
13 fraudulently caused Plaintiff to execute predatory loan documents.

14 77 At no time whatsoever did Defendants ever advise Plaintiff (nor, as far as Plaintiff 15 can determine, any "investor" in certificates of mortgage-backed securities) that:

- 16 a. the mortgage loan being processed was not in their best interest;
- 17 b. the terms of the mortgage loan being processed were less favorable than 18 the fixed-rate loan which Defendants previously advised Plaintiff that they 19 qualified for;
- 20 c. that the mortgage loan was an inter-temporal transaction (transaction
21 where terms, risks, or provisions at the commencement of the transaction
22 differ at a later time) on which Plaintiff was providing cover for 23 Defendants' illegal activities.
- 24 d. that Plaintiff would likely be placed in a position of default, foreclosure,
25 and deficiency judgment regardless of whether she met her loan
26 obligations once the true lender or true holder(s) in due course appeared;
- 27 e. that the originating "lender", had no intention of retaining ownership
28 interest in the mortgage loan or fully servicing same and in fact may have

1 and probable had already pre-sold the loan, prior to closing, to a third
2 party mortgage aggregator pursuant to previously executed documentation
3 (Assumption and assignment Agreement, Pooling Services Agreement,
4 etc. all executed prior to Plaintiff's "loan Closing."

5 f. that the mortgage loan was actually intended to be repeatedly sold and 6 assigned to multiple third parties, including one or more mortgage
7 aggregators and investment bankers (including but not limited to 8 Defendants DOES 1-10), for the ultimate purpose of bundling the 9 Plaintiff mortgage with hundreds or perhaps thousands of others as part
10 of a companion, support, or other tranche in connection with the creation
11 of a REMIC security known as a Collateralized Mortgage Obligation
12 ("CMO"), also known as a "mortgage-backed security" to be sold by a 13 securities firm (and which in fact ended up as collateral for Asset-Backed 14 Securities Certificates, created the same year as the closing);

15 g. that the mortgage instrument and Promissory Note may be sold,
16 transferred, or assigned separately to separate third parties so that the later
17 "holder" of the Promissory Note may not be in privity with or have the 18 legal right to foreclose in the event of default;

19 h. that in connection with the multiple down line resale and assignment of 20 the mortgage and Promissory Note that assignees or purchasers of the 21 Note may make "pay-downs" against the Note which may effect the true
22 amount owed by the Plaintiff on the Note;

23 i. that a successive assignee or purchaser of the Note and Mortgage may not,
24 upon assignment or purchase, unilaterally impose property insurance
25 requirements different from those imposed as a condition of the original
26 loan (also known as prohibition against increased forced-placed coverage)
27 without the Plaintiff prior notice and consent;
28

1 78 As a result of the closing and in connection therewith, Defendants placed the
2 Plaintiff into a pool of a sub-prime adjustable rate mortgage programs, with Defendants
3 intentionally misleading Plaintiff and the other borrowers and engaging in material omissions by 4 failing to disclose to Plaintiff and other borrowers the fact that the nature of the mortgage loan
5 applications had been materially changed without Plaintiff's knowledge or consent, and that
6 Plaintiff was being placed into a pool where the usual loan was an adjustable rate mortgage
7 program despite borrowers not being fully qualified for such a program.

8 79 Prior to the closing (6/8/2006), Defendants failed to provide to Plaintiff the 9 preliminary disclosures required by the Truth-In-Lending Act pursuant to 12 CFR (also known 10 as and referred to herein as "Regulation Z) sec. 226.17 and 18, and failed to provide the 11 preliminary disclosures required by the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act ("RESPA")
12 pursuant to 24 FR sec. 3500.6 and 35007, otherwise known as the GFE.

13 80 As noted by EXHIBIT A and A-1 Plaintiff applied for a residential loan on or 14 before 5/22/2006. However, Plaintiff receive a Uniform Residential Loan applications
15 (EXHIBITS B and B-1), Good Faith Estimates (EXHIBITS C and C-1), Settlement statements
16 (EXHIBITS D and D-1), Preliminary TIL Disclosures (EXIBITS E and E-1), final TIL
17 Disclosures (EXHIBITS F and F-1) on the day of closing 6/8/2006.

18 81 Defendants also intentionally failed and/or refused to provide Plaintiff with 19 various disclosures which would indicate to the Plaintiff that the consumer credit contract
20 entered into was void, illegal, and predatory in nature due in part to the fact that Defendants did
21 not properly disclosed TIL disclosures BEFORE closing date.

22 82 Defendants failed to provide an accurate GFE or Itemization of Amount Financed
23 ("IOAF"), there was no disclosure of a loan discount fee of $2,951.50 to PACIFIC GOLD
24 MORTGAGE GROUP, LLC, prior to closing.

25 83 As a direct and proximate result of these failures to disclose as required by the 26 Truth-In-Lending Act, Defendants received a Loan Origination Fee (LOF) in a substantial
27 amount of without preliminary disclosure, which is a per se violation of 12 CFR sec. 226.4(a),
28

1 226.17 and 18(d) and (c)(1)(iii). The LOF raised the interest rate which was completely unknown
2 to or approved by the Plaintiff, as they did not received the required GFE, IOAF.

3 84 The Note (EXHIBIT G) dated 6/8/2006 shows an interest rate at 6.050%, yet, the 4 final Truth-In-Lending (TIL) Disclosure Statement (EXHIBIT F) dated 6/8/2006 shows a
5 9.655% APR. This substantial higher interest rate, over the life of the loans, would cost Plaintiffs
6 hundreds of thousands of dollars more than they would have paid if they had been given the rate
7 on the Note. Defendants did not disclose properly Early Disclosures in violation of the Real
8 Estate Settlement Procedures act (RESPA) and the Truth In Lending Act (TILA).

9 85 In addition to the above and below, Defendants fail to provide proper and 10 accurate material disclosures required under the TILA at the time of closing. Specifically 11 Defendants failed to include all of the prepaid finance charges in the amount financed and to 12 accurately state the interest portion of the finance charge.

13 86 The Amount Financed within the TIL is also understated which is a material
14 violation of 12 CFR sec. 226.17 and 18, in addition to 15 USC sec. 1602(u), as the Amount
15 Financed must be completely accurate with no tolerance.

16 87 Defendants were under numerous legal obligations as fiduciaries and had the 17 responsibility for overseeing the purported loan consummation to insure that the consummation
18 was legal, proper, and that Plaintiff received all legally required disclosures pursuant to the 19 Truth-In- Lending Act and RESPA both before and after the closing.

20 88 Plaintiff, not being in the consumer lending, mortgage broker, or residential loan
21 business, reasonably relied upon the Defendants to insure that the consumer credit transaction
22 was legal, proper, and complied with all applicable laws, rules, and Regulations.

23 89 At all times relevant hereto, Defendants regularly extended or offered to extend 24 consumer credit for which a finance charge is or may be imposed or which, by written
25 agreement, is payable in more than four (4) installments and was initially payable to the person
26 the subject of the transaction, rendering Defendants "creditors" within the meaning of the Truth-
27 In- Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. sec. 1602(f) and Regulation Z sec. 226.2 (a)(17).

1 90 At the closing of the subject "loan transaction", Plaintiff executed Promissory
2 Notes and Security Agreements in favor of Defendants as aforesaid. These transactions,
3 designated by Defendants as a Loan, extended consumer credit which was subject to a finance
4 charge and which was initially payable to the Defendants.

5 91 As part of the consumer credit transaction the subject of the closing, Defendants
6 retained a security interest in the subject property which was Plaintiff's principal residential 7 dwelling.

8 92 Defendants engaged in a pattern and practice of defrauding Plaintiff in that,
9 during the entire life of the mortgage loan, Defendants failed to properly credit payments made;
10 incorrectly calculated interest on the accounts; and have failed to accurately debit fees.

11 93 Defendants had actual knowledge that the Plaintiff's accounts were not accurate
12 but that Plaintiff would make further payments based on Defendants' inaccurate accounts.
13 Plaintiff made payments based on the improper, inaccurate, and fraudulent representations as to 14 Plaintiff's accounts. As a direct and proximate result of the actions of the Defendants set forth
15 above, Plaintiff overpaid in interest. Defendants also utilized amounts known to the Defendants
16 to be inaccurate to determine the amount allegedly due and owing for purposes of foreclosure.

17 94 As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' action, Plaintiff has suffered
18 mental anguish, physical illness as direct result of stress caused by Defendants. In addition,
19 Plaintiff has suffered substantial economic harm including but not limited to the loss of equity in
20 the home, and the imminent prospect of being foreclosed and evicted from his home.

21 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays this Court that judgment be entered against Defendants
22 as follows:

- 23 a. Judgment ordering that the Trustee Sale be cancelled immediately;
- 24 b. Award actual damages to be established at trial pursuant 15 U.S.C. § 25 1640;
- 26 c. Award Plaintiff costs and reasonable attorneys fees in accordance with 15
27 U.S.C. § 1640;

1 d. For such other and further equitable relief, declaratory relief and legal
2 damages as may be permitted by law and as the court may consider just
3 and proper.

4 COUNT THREE: VIOLATION TO THE HOME OWNERSHIP AND EQUITY
5 PROTECTION ACT (HOEPA), 15 U.S.C. § 1639

6 95 Plaintiff reaffirms, re-allege and incorporate by reference the foregoing
7 paragraphs.

8 96 The transaction entered by Plaintiff and Defendants is a HOEPA mortgage as set 9 forth in 15 U.S.C. § 1602(aa).

10 97 Defendants violated the disclosure requirements for a HOEPA mortgage as set 11 forth in 15 U.S.C. § 1609(a).

12 98 Defendants violated 15 U.S.C. § 1639(h) which prohibits a creditor from 13 engaging in a pattern or practice of extending such credit to consumers based on the consumer's 14 collateral if, considering the consumer's current and expected income, current obligations, and 15 employment status, the consumer will be unable to make the scheduled payments to repay the 16 obligation.

17 99 Creditor violates Reg. Z, 12 C.F.R. § 226.34(a)(4) if the creditor does not verify
18 and document the borrower's ability to repay. So-called "no-doc" covered loans trigger this 19 presumption. Failing to underwrite loans based on traditional underwriting criteria such as debt-
20 to-income ratio, loan-to-value ratio, FICO score, reserves, and work history. These criteria
21 ensure that a borrower is obtaining a loan that he or she has the resources and assets to repay, and
22 ignoring these criteria results in many loans that bear no relation to borrowers' ability to repay
23 them. This allows the lender to make a quick profit from the origination, but sets the borrower up 24 for default and foreclosure.

25 100 Defendants, enticed by the prospect of short-term profits resulting from exorbitant
26 origination fees, and related pricing schemes, took advantage of a rapidly market to convince 27 Plaintiff and other borrowers to enter into loans they could not afford. Often this was 28 accomplished with the help of deceptive practices and promises to refinance at a later date. These

1 abusive Defendants did not worry about the consequences of default or foreclosure to their
2 business because once made or prior to signing, the loans were sold to the secondary market.

3 101 These practices maximize short-term profit to Defendants without regard to the 4 borrower's best interest, the borrower's ability to repay, or the financial health of underserved
5 minority neighborhoods.

6 102 Defendants issuing of a loan to plaintiff was not because Plaintiff ability to repay
7 it, but rather to take possession of Plaintiff's home. The practice is unfair and unconscionable.
8 Stealing Plaintiff's home does not have a legitimate business justification outweighing the 9 Plaintiff injury.

10 103 Had Plaintiff known of the falsity of Defendants' representations, plaintiff would
11 not have entered into the transactions the subject of this action.

12 104 HOPA was violated since prohibits Defendants from engaging in a pattern or 13 practice of extending high-cost loan without regard to Plaintiff's ability to repay from sources
14 other than encumbered home's equity. Defendants' pattern or practice of such lending entitles 15 Plaintiff to actual and statutory damages under 15 U.S.C. § 1640(a).

16 105 Defendants knew or should have known about their failures to comply with the 17 TILA and HOEPA.

18 106 As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' action, Plaintiff has suffered
19 mental anguish, physical illness as direct result of stress caused by Defendants. In addition,
20 Plaintiff has suffered substantial economic harm including but not limited to the loss of equity in
21 the home, and the imminent prospect of being foreclosed and evicted from his home.

22 107 Defendants are liable for Plaintiffs' claims arising out of Defendants' failure to 23 comply with the TILA and HOEPA.

24 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays this Court that judgment be entered against Defendants
25 as follows:

- 26 a. Judgment ordering that the Trustee Sale be cancelled immediately;
27 b. Plaintiffs be awarded monetary damages available under the law.
28 c. Punitive damages available under the law.

d. This Court declares that Defendants have no legal claim to title of the subject property.

e. Attorneys fees be awarded to Plaintiffs.

f. For such other and further equitable relief, declaratory relief and legal damages as may be permitted by law and as the court may consider just and proper.

COUNT FOUR: VIOLATION OF THE UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

108 Plaintiff reaffirms, re-allege and incorporate by reference the foregoing paragraphs.

109 The promissory note (EXHIBIT G and G-1) referred to in the Deed of Trust (EXHIBIT H and H-1), is a negotiable instrument, governed by A.R.S. § 44-3104(a), (b) and (e).

110 Plaintiffs allege that Defendants do not meet the definition of a Holder-in-Due-course under A.R.S. § 44-3302.

111 Plaintiffs also allege that defendants are not entitled to enforce the Deed of Trust, and, therefore, cannot legally go forward with the trustee's sale.

112 Defendants, at this time, cannot prove that they have properly transferred possession of the note or Deed of Trust pursuant A.R.S. § 44-3201.

113 Defendants are not in possession of the underlying instruments, that is, the promissory Note and Deed of Trust, and therefore, cannot enforce the instrument.

114 Defendant Washington Mutual Bank has fail to present proof of the assignment of the Deed of Trust and the Note from Pacific Gold Mortgage Group, LLC to Washington mutual Bank.

115 Defendant Washington Mutual Bank has failed to establish that it has legal or equitable interest in the mortgage and underlying debt.

116 Ownership of the note and mortgage may be established by the lending documents themselves or by proof that the Defendant Washington Mutual Bank is the owner of the note and mortgage by reason of an assignment of both the Note and mortgage by the owner

1 thereof to the Defendant or by the owner's indorsement of the Note and its written assignment of
 2 mortgage to the Defendant. Washington mutual Bank has been unable to provide with such proof
 3 and therefore lacks standing in commencing foreclosure process against Plaintiff.

4 117 Arizona's recording statute requires that all conveyances of real estate be
 5 acknowledged and recorded pursuant A.R.S. § 33-412.

6 118 A land conveyance not properly acknowledged and recorded is otherwise void.

7 119 Because Defendants have not proven that the land conveyance was acknowledged
 8 and recorded, they cannot go forward with the Trustee's Sale unless and until that proof is made.

9 120 As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' action, Plaintiff has suffered
 10 mental anguish, physical illness as direct result of stress caused by Defendants. In addition,
 11 Plaintiff has suffered substantial economic harm including but not limited to the loss of equity in
 12 the home, and the imminent prospect of being foreclosed and evicted from his home.

13 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays this Court that judgment be entered against Defendants
 14 as follows:

- 15 a. Judgment ordering that the Trustee Sale be cancelled immediately;
- 16 b. Plaintiffs be awarded monetary damages available under the law.
- 17 c. Punitive damages available under the law.
- 18 d. This Court declares that Defendants have no legal claim to title of the 19 subject property.
- 20 e. Attorneys fees be awarded to Plaintiffs.
- 21 f. For such other and further equitable relief, declaratory relief and legal
 22 damages as may be permitted by law and as the court may consider just
 23 and proper.

24 COUNT FIVE: VIOLATION OF THE FAIR DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES ACT

25 121 Plaintiff reaffirms, re-allege and incorporate by reference the foregoing
 26 paragraphs.
 27
 28

122 Defendants violated the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. §1692f, by using unfair and unconscionable means to collect the debt owed by the plaintiff, including the collecting and attempting to collect the debt owed by the Plaintiff.

123 Defendants violated the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692d(1) and (5) and (6) by:

- a. threatening to foreclosure on the Plaintiff's home even though
 Defendants have no present right to possession of the property
 under its security agreement.
- b. threatening to take other action prohibited by law;
- c. causing a telephone to ring or engaging any person in telephone conversation repeatedly or continuously with intent to annoy, abuse, or harass any person at the called number, in violation of 15
 U.S.C. § 1692d(5);
- d. the placement of telephone calls without meaningful disclosure of the caller's identity, in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1692d(6).

124 As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' action, Plaintiff has suffered mental anguish, physical illness as direct result of stress caused by Defendants. In addition,
 Plaintiff has suffered substantial economic harm including but not limited to the loss of equity in the home, and the imminent prospect of being foreclosed and evicted from his home.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays this Court that judgment be entered against Defendants
 as follows:

- a. Judgment ordering that the Trustee Sale be cancelled immediately;
- b. Plaintiffs be awarded monetary damages available under the law.
- c. Punitive damages available under the law.
- d. This Court declares that Defendants have no legal claim to title of the subject property.
- e. Attorneys fees be awarded to Plaintiffs.

1 f. For such other and further equitable relief, declaratory relief and legal
2 damages as may be permitted by law and as the court may consider just
3 and proper.

4 COUNT SIX: FRAUD, MISREPRESENTATION AND CONSPIRACY

5 118 Plaintiff reaffirms, re-allege and incorporate by reference the foregoing
6 paragraphs.

7 119 Defendants made certain representations and omissions to plaintiffs, including,
8 but not limited to those set forth more fully above and below.

9 120 The representations and omissions described above and below, among others,
10 were false.

11 121 The representations and omissions described above and below, among others
12 were material, among other things, to plaintiffs.

13 122 Defendants made these and other representations and omissions with knowledge
14 of their falsity.

15 123 Defendants made these and other representations and omissions to induce 16 Plaintiffs to enter into a predatory mortgage loan transaction issued by Defendants.

17 124 Plaintiffs were not aware that defendants' representations and omissions were 18 false.

19 125 Plaintiffs relied on the truth of Defendants' representations and omissions to the 20 Plaintiffs' detriment.

21 126 Plaintiffs had no reason to question the truth of Defendants' representations and 22 omissions.

23 127 Had Plaintiff known of the falsity of Defendants' representations, plaintiff would
24 not have entered into the transactions the subject of this action.

25 128 As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' action, Plaintiff has suffered
26 mental anguish, physical illness as direct result of stress caused by Defendants. In addition,
27 Plaintiff has suffered substantial economic harm including but not limited to the loss of equity in
28 the home, and the imminent prospect of being foreclosed and evicted from his home.

1 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays this Court that judgment be entered against Defendants
2 as follows:

- 3 a. Judgment ordering that the Trustee Sale be cancelled immediately;
- 4 b. Plaintiffs be awarded monetary damages available under the law;
- 5 c. Punitive damages available under the law;
- 6 d. For actual and consequential damages as may be proved at the time of 7 trial;
- 8 e. This Court declares that Defendants have no legal claim to title of the 9 subject property;
- 10 f. Attorneys fees be awarded to Plaintiffs;
- 11 g. For such other and further equitable relief, declaratory relief and legal 12 damages as may be permitted by law and as the court may consider just
13 and proper.

14 COUNT SEVEN: CONVERSION/CIVIL THEFT

15 129 Plaintiff reaffirms, re-allege and incorporate by reference the foregoing
16 paragraphs.

17 130 Defendants have intentionally seized, held or otherwise interfered with Plaintiffs'
18 beneficial use of their Property without legal justification or privilege.

19 131 By their conduct, Defendants have converted the property of Plaintiffs for their 20 own use, or they hold the Property for the benefit of an unknown Defendant.

21 132 Defendants have engaged in an unlawful combination and conspiracy to foreclose
22 on home loans against individuals for the purpose of unjustly enriching themselves in violation
23 of law. This unlawful activity had the effect of unjustly enriching the joint venturers and 24 conspirators.

25 133 Defendants' actions were deliberate, harmful, wanton and in bad faith.

26 134 As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' action, Plaintiff has suffered
27 mental anguish, physical illness as direct result of stress caused by Defendants. In addition,
28

1 Plaintiff has suffered substantial economic harm including but not limited to the loss of equity in
2 the home, and the imminent prospect of being foreclosed and evicted from his home.

3 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays this Court that judgment be entered against Defendants
4 as follows:

- 5 a. Judgment ordering that the Trustee Sale be cancelled immediately;
- 6 b. Plaintiffs be awarded monetary damages available under the law;
- 7 c. Punitive damages available under the law;
- 8 d. For actual and consequential damages as may be proved at the time of 9 trial;
- 10 e. This Court declares that Defendants have no legal claim to title of the 11 subject property;
- 12 f. Attorneys fees be awarded to Plaintiffs;
- 13 g. For such other and further equitable relief, declaratory relief and legal 14 damages as may be permitted by law and as the court may consider just
15 and proper.

16 COUNT EIGHT: VIOLATION TO R.I.C.O. 18 U.S.C. §§ 1961 et seq and A.R.S. § 13-2314
17 et seq.

18 135 Plaintiff reaffirms, re-allege and incorporate by reference the foregoing
19 paragraphs.

20 136 Defendants have used non-judicial means to foreclose on the Plaintiffs' Property.
21 Defendants did not have a legal right to foreclose on said Property. The use of non-judicial
22 means to foreclose on Plaintiffs' Property and collect on the alleged debt is extortions as set forth
23 at A.R.S. § 13-2301(D)(4).

24 137 In undertaking the aforesaid acts, Defendants were participating in and have 25 participated in scheme of racketeering as that term is defined in RICO, 18 U.S.C. §§ 1961 et 26 seq. and A.R.S. § 13-2314 et seq.

27 138 Had Plaintiff known of the falsity of Defendants' representations, plaintiff would
28 not have entered into the transactions the subject of this action.

1 139 As a result of Defendants' misconduct, Plaintiffs have sustained reasonably
2 foreseeable injury to their property by a pattern of racketeering activity in violation of A.R.S. §
3 13-2314, et seq. and Plaintiffs are thus entitled to the remedies available under RICO in civil 4 actions.

5 140 As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' action, Plaintiff has suffered
6 mental anguish, physical illness as direct result of stress caused by Defendants. In addition,

27 Government bailout money.
28

18 COUNT TEN: INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

19 144 Plaintiff reaffirms, re-allege and incorporate by reference the foregoing
 20 paragraphs.

21 145 Defendants' actions described above and below are extreme.

22 146 Defendants intentions are to cause Plaintiffs severe emotional distress.

23 147 As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' action, Plaintiff has suffered
 24 mental anguish, physical illness as direct result of stress caused by Defendants. In addition,
 25 Plaintiff has suffered substantial economic harm including but not limited to the loss of equity in
 26 the home, and the imminent prospect of being foreclosed and evicted from his home.

27 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays this Court that judgment be entered against Defendants
 28 as follows:

- a. Judgment ordering that the Trustee Sale be cancelled immediately;
- b. Plaintiffs be awarded monetary damages available under the law;
- c. Punitive damages available under the law;
- d. For actual and consequential damages as may be proved at the time of trial;
- e. This Court declares that Defendants have no legal claim to title of the subject property;
- f. Attorneys fees be awarded to Plaintiffs;
- g. For such other and further equitable relief, declaratory relief and legal damages as may be permitted by law and as the court may consider just and proper.

COUNT ELEVEN: SLANDER ON TITLE

148 Plaintiff reaffirms, re-allege and incorporate by reference the foregoing paragraphs.

149 Defendants in filling a Trustee's Sale notice-which is void- has caused a cloud to be placed on the title of the Plaintiffs' Property.

150 As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' action, Plaintiff has suffered mental anguish, physical illness as direct result of stress caused by Defendants. In addition, Plaintiff has suffered substantial economic harm including but not limited to the loss of equity in the home, and the imminent prospect of being foreclosed and evicted from his home.

- a. Judgment ordering that the Trustee Sale be cancelled immediately;
- b. Plaintiffs be awarded monetary damages available under the law;
- c. Punitive damages available under the law;
- d. For actual and consequential damages as may be proved at the time of trial;

- 1 e. This Court declares that Defendants have no legal claim to title of the 2 subject property;
- 3 f. Attorneys fees be awarded to Plaintiffs;
- 4 g. For such other and further equitable relief, declaratory relief and legal
5 damages as may be permitted by law and as the court may consider just
6 and proper.

7 COUNT TWELVE: QUIET TITLE

8 151 Plaintiff reaffirms, re-allege and incorporate by reference the foregoing
9 paragraphs.

10 152 Plaintiffs are informed and believe that Defendants make some claim adverse to 11 Plaintiffs.

12 153 Defendants allege that they are the holder of the Promissory Note and Deed of 13 Trust on the property.

14 154 The exhibits incorporated herein do not identify any of the Defendants as the 15 Beneficiary.

16 155 There is no mention of an assignment, therefore, Defendants have not satisfied its 17 burden of demonstrating standing at the time of recording the Substitution of trustee and the 18 trustee's Sale.

19 156 Exhibits show no recorded chain of title/interest either as original mortgage
20 holder, assignee, trustee, or successor-in-interest for Defendants.

21 157 County records show inconsistencies, on recorded instruments by Defendants, 22 which create conflict.

23 158 There is no proof of any assignment, trust or successor interest.

24 159 When exhibits are inconsistent with Defendants' allegations of material fact as to 25 who the real party in interest is, such allegations cancel each other out.

26 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays this Court that judgment be entered against Defendants
27 as follows:

- 28 a. Judgment ordering that the Trustee Sale be cancelled immediately;

- b. Plaintiffs be awarded monetary damages available under the law;
- c. Punitive damages available under the law;
- d. For actual and consequential damages as may be proved at the time of trial;
- e. This Court declares that Defendants have no legal claim to title of the subject property;
- f. Attorneys fees be awarded to Plaintiffs;
- g. For such other and further equitable relief, declaratory relief and legal damages as may be permitted by law and as the court may consider just and proper.

COUNT THIRTEEN: BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

160 Plaintiff incorporates the allegations in Paragraphs 1 to 142 above with the same force and effect as if herein set forth

161 Fiduciary relationship arises when a party-a "weaker" party in the sense of the ability to protect itself, places trust and confidence in another.

162 Defendants by their actions in contracting to provide mortgage loan services and a loan program to plaintiff which was not only to be best suited to the Plaintiff given his income and expenses but by which Plaintiff would also be able to satisfy their obligations without risk of losing their home, where "fiduciaries" in which Plaintiff reposed trust and confidence, especially given that Plaintiff was not and is not investment banker, security dealer, mortgage lender, or mortgage broker.

163 Defendants breached their fiduciary duties to the plaintiff by fraudulently inducing Plaintiff to enter into mortgage transaction which was contrary to the Plaintiff's stated intentions; contrary to the Plaintiff's interests; and contrary to the Plaintiff's preservation of his home.

164 Had Plaintiff known of the falsity of Defendants' representations, plaintiff would not have entered into the transactions the subject of this action.

1 165 As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' action, Plaintiff has suffered
 2 mental anguish, physical illness as direct result of stress caused by Defendants. In addition,
 3 Plaintiff has suffered substantial economic harm including but not limited to the loss of equity in
 4 the home, and the imminent prospect of being foreclosed and evicted from his home.

5 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays this Court to

- 6 a. enjoin Defendants foreclosure procedures and hold an evidentiary hearing
- 7 to allow Plaintiffs to establish that they have properly exercised their
- 8 statutory right to rescind the Home Funds Direct mortgage.
- 9 b. Plaintiffs be awarded monetary damages available under the law.
- 10 c. Punitive damages available under the law.
- 11 d. This Court declare that Defendants have no legal claim to title of the
- 12 subject property.
- 13 e. Attorneys fees be awarded to Plaintiffs.
- 14 f. For such other and further equitable relief, declaratory relief and legal
- 15 damages as may be permitted by law and as the court may consider just
- 16 and proper

17 COUNT FIFTEEN: VIOLATION OF THE ARIZONA CONSUMER FRAUD ACT.

18 A.R.S. § 44-1521, et seq.

19 166 Plaintiff reaffirms, re-allege and incorporate by reference the foregoing
 20 paragraphs.

21 167 Defendants above and below-described actions constitute violations of the 22 Arizona Consumer Fraud Act, A.R.S. § 44-1521, et seq. ("ACFA")

23 168 As result of the Defendants' violations of the ACFA, the Plaintiffs suffered 24 damages in an amount to be determined by this Court.

25 169 Defendants made the misrepresentations described above with the intent and for 26 the purpose of inducing Plaintiffs into signing a predatory agreement for financing and did not
 27 provide closing documents required by Arizona and Federal Law.

28

1 170 Plaintiffs were never aware of the alleged assignment of the Deed of Trust, and
2 the assignment is not recorded with the Maricopa County recorder as required by Arizona Law.

3 171 In the course of the transactions, each defendant made one or more
4 misrepresentations and/or failed to make accurate representations and/or failed to provide
5 material information about the transactions as set forth more fully above.

6 172 Said misrepresentations and failure to make accurate representations were made
7 knowingly or with reason to know that Plaintiffs would rely thereon.

8 173 Said misrepresentations and failure to make accurate representations were 9 material to the transactions.

10 174 Defendants knowingly and intentionally concealed material information from 11 Plaintiff which is required by Federal Statutes and Regulations to be disclosed to the Plaintiff
12 both before and at closing.

13 175 Defendants also materially misrepresented material information to the Plaintiff
14 with full knowledge by Defendants that their affirmative representations were false, fraudulent,
15 and misrepresented the truth at the time said representations were made.

16 176 Under the circumstances, the material omissions and material misrepresentations
17 of the Defendants were malicious.

18 177 Defendants Failed to disclose disadvantageous cost or nature of the loan.

19 178 Defendants purposely concealed the identity of the true lender and Defendants'
20 relationship with such entity.

21 179 Plaintiffs were unaware that the representations described above were false.

22 180 Plaintiffs acted in reasonable reliance on the representations to their detriment.

23 181 Because of the above fraudulent misrepresentations and concealment, Plaintiffs 24 did not pursue other available arrangements.

25 182 The above acts by Defendants constitute a consumer fraud in violation of Arizona
26 Consumer Fraud Act, A.R.S. § 44-1521, et seq.

27 183 Defendants' pattern and practice of deception, misrepresentation, concealment of 28 material facts is itself unfair and deceptive.

1 184 Plaintiff is a vulnerable, unsophisticated member of the public, whose inability to
2 examine the fine point, make him a likely target of Defendants' deceptive and unfair practices
3 and acts.

4 185 Plaintiff, not being investment bankers, securities dealers, lenders, or mortgage
5 brokers, reasonably relied upon the representations of the Defendants in agreeing to execute the 6 mortgage loan documents to his detriment.

7 186 Defendants' pattern of deception and misrepresentation is unconscionable by 8 taking advantage of Plaintiff's lack of knowledge, ability, experience, or capacity to a grossly 9 unfair degree.

10 187 Had Plaintiff known of the falsity of Defendants' representations, plaintiff would
11 not have entered into the transactions the subject of this action.

12 188 In violating the ACFA, the Defendants acted with evil mind, intending to injure
13 the Plaintiffs or consciously disregarding the substantial risk that their conduct would cause
14 significant harm to the plaintiffs.

15 189 As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' action, Plaintiff has suffered
16 mental anguish, physical illness as direct result of stress caused by Defendants. In addition,
17 Plaintiff has suffered substantial economic harm including but not limited to the loss of equity in
18 the home, and the imminent prospect of being foreclosed and evicted from his home.

19 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays this Court that judgment be entered against Defendants
20 as follows:

- 21 a. Judgment ordering that the Trustee Sale be cancelled immediately;
- 22 b. Plaintiffs be awarded monetary damages available under the law;
- 23 c. Punitive damages available under the law;
- 24 d. For actual and consequential damages as may be proved at the time of 25 trial;
- 26 e. This Court declares that Defendants have no legal claim to title of the 27 subject property;
- 28 f. Attorneys fees be awarded to Plaintiffs;
